

A prayer for the end of a group ritual:

Xáryomen, who guards society's peace,
you have joined us together in our ritual today.
Though our rites may end,
and the people scatter,
may our fellowship remain strong.
Xáryomen, we thank you for your presence and blessings;
may we grow and flourish under your benevolent gaze.